

JUST SO STORIES

Rudyard Kipling

How did the elephant get its trunk? How did the whale gets its throat? How did the camel get its hump?

This little collection of stories that Rudyard Kipling first told his daughter explains how animals acquired their distinctive features.

Fun and fantastical, these short stories are perfect for reading aloud to children.